CORPORATE STRUCTURE & FEDERAL ELIGIBILITY

Emmonak Taluya, LLC is the Alaska Native holding company that owns Emmonak Corporation, the ANCSA Village Corporation established in 1973. Taluya sits at the top of the federal-contracting family, providing capital, governance oversight, and federal-eligibility flow-through to its subsidiaries.

The structure preserves Alaska Native ownership and control through every tier, which is the foundation of Emmonak Corporation's set-aside authority — including SBA 8(a) sole-source (13 CFR 124.506(b)), Buy Indian Act (25 U.S.C. §47), and Small Disadvantaged Business presumption (13 CFR 124.103(b)).

HOLDING-COMPANY FUNCTIONS

- Ownership & Governance — holds equity in Emmonak Corporation and any successor or sister operating entities; provides board-level oversight, governance discipline, and corporate-records integrity.
- Capital & Treasury — holding-company treasury function for inter-company capital allocation, federal-pursuit bid-and-proposal investment, and growth funding for operating subsidiaries.
- Federal Eligibility Stewardship — maintains the Alaska Native ownership chain documentation, ANCSA-eligibility evidence, and SAM.gov / SBA representations required for set-aside authority.
- Strategic Acquisitions & JV Vehicles — the holding-company tier through which new acquisitions, joint ventures, and mentor-protégé vehicles are structured for the Emmonak family.
- Risk Management & Insurance — family-level liability segmentation, insurance coordination, and corporate-protection structuring across operating subsidiaries.

WHY A HOLDING COMPANY MATTERS FOR FEDERAL CONTRACTING

- Eligibility durability — SBA and federal CO reviews increasingly scrutinize the ownership chain of ANC, SDB, and 8(a) firms. A documented holding-company parent demonstrates corporate maturity and durable Alaska Native ownership.
- Subsidiary protection — risk and performance issues at one operating subsidiary do not impair the federal-eligibility status of sister subsidiaries.
- Acquisition platform — the holding company is the natural vehicle for further acquisitions that strengthen the Emmonak family's NAICS coverage and past-performance footprint.
- Mentor-protégé readiness — holding-company structure supports SBA M-P Joint Venture vehicles where the JV entity is owned and controlled by the protégé with the mentor's depth available behind it.
